

Conductors Branch and GDPR

The new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) was introduced in the UK on 25th May 2018. Consequently, the Conductors Branch of the RLC Association is publishing an updated Privacy Policy to make it easier for members to find out how we gather, store, protect and use your information within the Branch. We won't be changing the ways we use your personal information, but the Privacy Policy will provide you with the following additional information:

- Your increased rights in relation to the information we hold
- How we keep your personal information secure
- The types of personal information the Branch collects
- How we collect and use that information
- The legal grounds for how we use your information

The Privacy Policy will apply to the personal data the Branch holds about you and will regulate how that data is stored, used and how we communicate with members. The new Privacy Policy will be effective from 25th May 2018 and you'll be able to view it on the Conductors website at:

www.rlc-conductor.info/privacy

The Conductors Branch does not pass on or sell your personal information to any third party and only uses your information to ensure you gain the maximum benefits from the Branch.
