We regret to have to announce the death at Pearl's Hill from dengue fever of Conductor A. R. Bain, Army Service Corps. The deceased was unable to attend to his duties on Thursday and Friday last, and died about one o'clock on Saturday morning, at Pearl's Hill. He was married, and leaves a wife and two young children, who, it is expected, have just left home to join him. The sad news of his death will be conveyed to them. He was deservedly popular among his comrades. He was buried on Saturday evening with military honours. Among those who attended the funeral were Captains Trimmell and Linnell, A.O.C., and all the warrant and senior non-commissioned officers on the garrison staff. The warders of the Prison were well represented. The Rev. S. S. Walker conducted the funeral service.

MBE June 1981, Selected for QM Category Commission in the rank of Captain in 1985 but did not accept. Quote from email I read with interest your article on 'The Modern Day Conductor'. In particular your reference to General Sir Michael Gow - Commander Northern Army Group and Commander in Chief British Army of the Rhine and his letter to Maj Gen J Brown, the then DGOS, in June 1981. My appointment prompted that letter. I was appointed Conductor in May 1981 and General Gow saw my letter of appointment from the DGOS. I have photographs of General Gow strapping the badge of rank on my wrist for the first time. He was greatly interested in military history and was a stickler for seniority, precedence and the like. I was General Gow's Superintending Clerk at the time. A small piece of history? I also recall being the 'Senior Conductor' for 2, maybe 3, years although in those days very little mention was made of the pecking order of Conductors. My name was at the top of the entries in the Army List for quite some time. May 2012. Latterly posted to Headquarters Land Forces Cyprus (HQ LFC). Cdr Kevin Hartley replaced me there in 1985 when I retired. I remained in Cyprus with my family for a few years and I was with the Sultan of Oman's Land Forces for a while before returning to the UK.

He was very overweight and was believed to be diabetic as well.

WO1(Cdr)	S Brazier GM	Brazier GM		1964	Cdr Sydney Brazier, The London Gazette of the 7th February 1964 announced that Conductor S. Brazier RAOC, had been awarded the George Medal. On the 12th October 1963, Conductor Brazier was a member of a team from Southern Command assembled to advise the Aldershot authorities regarding the removal and disposal of an unknown quantity of No 74 Grenades (Sticky Bombs), some of which had been discovered on top of a steep grass-covered bank close to a barrack area. A total of 20 grenades were carried singly in a sand-filled box to a demolition area and destroyed. An ingenious sandbag traverse was constructed around a further 34 grenades which were then destroyed in situ. The task of moving these grenades was hazardous and required a technical skill of the highest order. Note: No 74 Grenades were inherently one of the most dangerous weapons ever produced. These grenades had been in the ground for twenty or more years and were in an extremely dangerous condition. The original storage life was only two years and so the chemical stabiliser must have been quite ineffective and the nitro-glycerine content highly sensitive.

WO1(Cdr)	AL Jones	Jones	11 Armd Div		Arthur Leonard Jones, Left 1946. The Conductor in question is my late father who sadly passed away on 10th December 2006 at the age of 86. Knowing a little of his war time experiences (Dunkirk, D Day involving the liberation of Belsen) I have inherited his medals and some war time documents and am further researching the experiences he must have gone through. I was glad to find this website which has given me a fuller understanding of the history and role of the Conductor. Submitted by Son Phil Jones
